BEN BRONZ ACADEMY
COMPUTER USER CODE OF CONDUCT

As the use of technology and the internet is a privilege and not a right, I understand, accept and will abide by the following conditions at Ben Bronz Academy:

- 1) I will use electronic information resources only as a learning tool as directed by my mediators or other staff members. I will use electronic information resources in a responsible, ethical, and legal manner at all times.
- 2) I will not copy (plagiarize) someone else's work and claim that it is my own. I will give appropriate credit to the author or the resource as the source of information that I find when I research.
- 3) I will not give out any personal information about myself or anyone else while using electronic information resources. I will use polite and appropriate language at all times while accessing and using these resources. I will keep my log-in and all passwords confidential, and I will report any log-in/password misuse to the staff in charge.
- 4) I will not damage the electronic equipment, and I will report any damage or problems to my mediator or the technical staff. I will not remove peripherals (mouse, keypads, earphones, finger guides, labels, etc.) without permission.
- 5) I will not intentionally damage, degrade or disrupt the electronic information resources, including computer services. I will not tamper with computer software, vandalize or change data in any way, intentionally introduce computer viruses, attempt to gain access to restricted or unauthorized networks or network services. I understand that such activity may be a crime.

If I do not follow the rules outlined in this Computer User Code of Conduct, I know that I may lose my privilege to use the Academy's electronic information resources. I also know that I may be disciplined for not following the rules and that my parents and I may have to pay for any damage I cause because of my intentional misuse of these resources.

I am aware that some violations of the Computer User Code of Conduct may also be violations of local, State and federal laws and regulations, and that I may be prosecuted for violating those laws.
